

English

In today's society speaking and writing the English language is a priority. At Instituto Noray, we have the best and most experienced English teachers. Our In-school program allows for the student to have a 10 hours per week immersion in the English language, this allows for the student to become equally skillful and knowledgeable in the foreign language. We also prepare our students for the different International Exam Certifications (KET, PET, Toefl).